You only need 3 guilds because they are only two cities' locations The form slows down, depending on the length of the cycle, depending on which server restart. So one cycle you won't even come close to the cap, and in the next one you can be and if we're getting the end Befor spread your activities from because you didn't know better, and ending up with 3 cities that don't give up access to any of your groups' own desired content, you might want to think about a test First, or gather more information that helps you decide if you want to check first if AOC is a game where you can always do what you always do, the way you always do, or if it's a game where you want to adapt to thesegame mechanics and arguments. As such, a guild benefits the most from active members in all categories. This is something that dedicates this game to many others: Synergy and Teampay will always take you ahead of anything else. About examples, a petition or live chat will give you the best answer. Next Page → →
